

CEMETERY-Across Dowis Chapel Road from James Elliott and Sarah Hammons Elliott's graves, Knox County, Kentucky

Copied by: Barbara A. Elliott Yeager

Published by: Knox County Genealogical Society, INC.

*****

Mary E. Harmon

b. September 6, 1827?

d. July 17, 1841

Nancy Harmon

b. March 16, 1822

d. December 18, 1876

One large unmarked grave.

One small unmarked grave. (According to Troy Herman Wells, this one grave was at one time enclosed by a picket fence.)

Notes by copyist Barbara A. Elliott Yeager:

Directions to cemetery: To get to this cemetery, we first went through the old Methodist Meeting House. I say, through, because it is no longer there, having been torn down many years ago.
This was the first Methodist Church built in that part of the county.
It was later built on up Dowis Chapel Road on land originally owned by the Dowis family, but later owned by Ben Barton. It no longer stands either.